Stillwater, O. T., Sept. 12.-The report has reached here of the attempt of two Baker brothers, aged 5 and 10 respectively, living near Bryan postoffice to murder a neighbor boy, George Duncan, aged 5 years. Young Duncan is a son of Frank Duncan, a well known farmer of this county. The Gazette, in printing the detalls of the case says;

George Duncan, the son of Frank Duncan, a well known and respectable farmer living near Bryan postoffice, last Saturday afternoon when in a lonesome part of the road he was set upon by the Baker boys and removed from the horse he was riding. The Bakers' tied the boy to a tree and then set upon him with whips and knotted rope. They whipped him until they thought life was extinct and then left him. The horse left free made his way toward home and passed the home of young Duncan's grandfather. The grand-father saw that something had happened and started back along the road to find the boy.
